Sweet Rosalee

COMPOSED FOR THE SUNDAY
POST-DISPATCH

MUSIC
BY MORTIMER FURCHGOTT.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE
ST. LOUIS SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH
MAY 26, 1901
Thiebes-Stierlin Music Co.
By Permission of
Publishers and Owners of Copyright

"SWEET ROSALEE."

Music by
MORTIMER FURCHGOTT.

p
1. In a vil - lage that is near
2. Time has turned his old head gray,
p
Lives a maid en ve- -ry dear; She's as pure as Since they met that sum - mers day; Wand'-ring thro' this pure can be, And one so fair,— I ne'er did see.
world a lone. No one to cheer his lone - ly home.

Copyright MDCDI by Thiebes-Stierlin Music Co.

She is court - - - ed and lad mir - ed,
Bur - - - ied in the vil - lage church yard,

By a man so brave;
Lies the girl he loved;

For her hand he did as - pire
Mem - ry brings back her sweet an - swer,

And to her these words would say:
Com - - ing as if from a - bove.

rall

CHORUS:

Tempo di Valse.

Sweet Ro - sa - lee yes I will be true,

mf

Tell me the same, dear-est sweet heart, do;

Come, now your an - swer, what will it be

Say that you love me, sweet Ro - sa - lee.